RELIEF WORK GETS UNDER WAY HERE

JAMES S. BAREMORE, 70, BELOVED CITIZEN, DIES AT HIS MAYSFIELD HOME

Funeral services were held for J. S. Baremore, age 70 years, who died from sudden heart attack at his home in Maysfield Tuesday morning, January 10 at 1:30 o'clock.

Rev. E. S. Sanson pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Huntsville, a former pastor and close friend of deceased, assisted by Rev. H. Bailey, pastor of the Maysfield Presbyterian church, where Mr. Baremore had been a member for many years, conducted the religious services. Interment was made in Little River cemetery.

Mr. Baremore was born September 21, 1862 at Bryan, Texas, son of the late James S. Baremore, an early Texas pioneer who settled in Texas during the early days when civilization was in the making.

Mr. Baremore had lived for more than 50 years at Maysfield where he engaged in farming. His outstanding characteristics were his interests and loyalty to friends. He possessed a friendly disposition and adhered to his convictions in a true and noble manner, and was ever ready to assist those in need, and his many friends feel that they have lost a staunch friend in his passing.

Deceased is survived by his wife, and two foster daughters whom he reared from childhood, Mrs. Jane White and Miss Margaret Massengale of Maysfield.

A large concourse of friends followed the remains to the last resting place, many going from Cameron and nearby towns.

Beautiful floral offerings covered the grave in tribute to a good and noble citizen whose life will bless mankind and remain an inspiration to the people among whom he lived.

Pall bearers were: H. L. Yager, H. L. Atkinson, A. L. Massengale, Clarence Freeman, H. W. Massengale and D. Martin.

The Coleman-Eplee Funeral Home had charge of the remains and directed the funeral arrangements.

DR. D. MONROE HURT IN A FALL AT HOME

Dr. D. Monroe, well known physician here, accidentally fell Sunday, January 8th while dressing himself at the home of his son, Frank Monroe and suffered a broken hip bone. He was taken to the Cameron Hospital for X-Ray attention, and after-ward returned to his son's home where he is resting.

Dr. Monroe is widely known throughout this section of the county and state, as he practiced here more than fifty years ago, and has friends over the county who regret to hear of his misfortune. His son, Dr. Elbra Monroe, is giving him constant care and attention, and his many friends hope for him a speedy recovery. Dr. D. Monroe retired from regular practice more than ten years ago.

Big Day Planned Baptist Here Sunday

Numerous committees from the Baptist church have been working the past two weeks on collecting and signing pledges to balance the church budget. These efforts are to be climaxed in special services Sunday morning and evening at the church. Plans are being made to have the largest Sunday school and church attendance for months. Special music at the morning and evening services, with sermon in the morning by the pastor and the evening sermon will be preached by Rev. Wilzel of San Marcos, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Voyles of Lilac community were in Cameron Tuesday on business. While in the city they visited the Herald office and will receive the Herald in 1933. Mr. Voyles was elected a member of the Democratic Executive Committee from Lilac at the recent primary election.

LONE ROBBER HOLD UP CAMERON YOUTH HERE

Cameron was having its crime wave as further law violations were being reported.

A lone robber on the Ben Arnold Highway just outside the city limits on the north, during a rain storm Saturday night held up Curley Stedman as he was returning to his home.

The man suddenly stepped in his path and made the Cameron man stick 'em up. The bandit demanded cash. Mr. Stedman did not have any money on his person. The robber then demanded his overcoat but finally declined to take it and disappeared in the darkness along the highway.

Another citizen was said to have been robbed of $35 in cash with fairly good evidence as to the identity of the robber, according to information thus far.

Capt. Hamer, Noted Texas Ranger, Says Crime Wave Is On

Captain Frank Hamer, noted Texas Ranger, in talk with Sheriff Blaylock recently in Austin, gave as his opinion that within the next few weeks or during the remainder of the winter and spring, Texas towns will experience a crime wave unprecedented.

Sheriff Blaylock said the Ranger Captain believed the criminals were coming South and no escape was seen from many crimes. Already Central Texas and Cameron have been shocked by both brutal murders and robberies by the score. Bank robbers have been faring badly. Three have been slain and a number captured in recent weeks.

Friends in Cameron of Captain Hamer will regret his announcement that he will retire from service. Captain Hamer, widely sought by magazine and newspaper correspondents, has kept his secrets and thus far, it is said, has never told his life story, crowded years that span more than two decades of Texas history. Captain Hamer began his service as a Ranger in pursuit of cattle thieves in West Texas under the aged veteran, Captain Will Wright. He tied them to windmills and tree trunks and broke up their thievery and since has been one of the aces in the most colorful and influential police body in the world—the Texas Rangers.

Resigns After Twenty Years Work In Church

The following letter of resignation has been tendered the Methodist church by C. F. Spiller: To the Congregation of the First Methodist Church, Cameron, Texas, Dear Friends:

For the past twenty-seven years and eight months, I have endeavored to serve you faithfully and efficiently as your janitor. I now desire to retire from this service, and herewith respectfully tender my resignation. I wish to thank you for your universal kindness, and consideration during my long service, and to assure you that I entertain for you sentiments of highest personal esteem and kindest feelings.

I have watched with interest and solicitude the wonderful progress that has been made in all departments of the church while I was in your service, and I trust that the Lord may continue to bless and prosper your church, and that it may yet do greater and better things for the glory of our common Lord and Master.

Yours cordially and fraternally, C. F. SPILLER.

For 27 years Mr. Spiller has been in the service of the church. Since the three decades of service many changes have come about in Cameron. The original church he served was the little brick church razed to make way for the present building. The membership regrets the resignation of Mr. Spiller and all are in accord of appreciation for his services.

SMITH MURDER HERE IS STILL UNSOLVED MYSTERY

The murder of Andrew Smith, 49, Cameron grocer on the night of Wednesday, December 21, 1932, was slowly but surely drifting to the Saragossa of crime, an unsolved and impenetrable mystery, as officers here reported no progress at noon today.

The Grand Jury in District Court had completed its work for the present and it was said no consideration of the crime could be made due to lack of evidence, still hidden by the hatchet slayer, who mysteriously committed one of the most brutal murders ever known in Milam county and the "Friendly City" notorious for bloodshed.

The apparent unsuccessful pursuit of evidence on the part of the officers was not to be taken as evidence the case had been closed. Hundreds of clues and investigations have been made and although each has ended in failure and the crime becomes more shrouded with mystery, the officers were determined to keep at the investigation with the hope that some turn of good luck or fate would lead them to the solution.

Texas Rangers assisting here in the investigation have for more than ten days been away from the scene of the crime, returning to their posts at Austin, when all efforts seemed futile.

There remains, it is said, a few possible solutions that have as yet to be completely followed out. Both suspicion and practical crime detection point in these directions, it was said, and every effort will be made to run down the killers and bring them to justice.

J. C. JOSEPH ADDRESSES BUSINESS WOMEN HERE

Joe Joseph, City Secretary-Treasurer of Cameron, was speaker at the meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club Tuesday evening, speaking on "Municipal Government." This was a very interesting and instructive talk and much enjoyed by those present.

Two pleasing voice numbers were given by Inez Slaughter with her sister, Miss Weinanoh Slaughter, presiding at the piano. A short business session was held by the president, Mrs. Bigbee at the beginning of the evening. The Year Book was handed out by the committee for compiling same, and was given a rising vote of thanks for the attractive and splendid book.

Miss Rose Rischer, chairman. Mesdames John S. Owens and Katherine Robbins were appointed committee to gather shrubs for beautifying the City Park.

Miss Hyde, chairman of the program committee, and Miss Ennis Turner was hostess for the evening and served a lovely salad plate with coffee.

MYSTERY DEATH INDICATED IN FINDING HUMAN SKULL IN ALLEY OF CITY STREETS

A human skull, said to be that of a negro, with flesh still clinging to it, although in advanced stage of decomposition, was found in an alley leading east from Houston Avenue near the Hefley-Stedman Motor Co. building Saturday morning by a negro janitor in a nearby store.

The skull lay on the ground in the rain-soaked alley. The negro spread the alarm and officers were summoned. A doctor said it was the skull of a negro and indications were that the person had been dead for a month or more.

Justice of the Peace Gus Evans, viewed the skull and directed its burial after he had made all possible effort to identify it. Investigation was in progress and efforts were being made to fathom the mystery. Its discovery in the alley was puzzling to local officers. Some were inclined to believe ghouls had taken the skull from a grave.

Education Board to Press Suit For Funds in Defunct Bank

At a special meeting of the County Board of Education, held in the District Court room on Saturday, January 7th, the trustees of the 44 common school districts in Milam county which lost money by reason of the Cameron State Bank failure had been requested by the County Board of Education to meet with the County Board.

In the discussion it was shown that on February 29th, 1932, the State Banking Commissioner had entered into an agreement and contract with the Commissioner's Court to the effect that the Banking Commissioner would pay dividends on the amount of the total loss of all funds in Cameron State Bank, but was developed that two payments of dividends had been made to other creditors of the Cameron State Bank, but no payment had been made to the school funds, and the special meeting of the County Board of Education and the trustees of the forty-four common school districts was called for the purpose of discussing the matter of requiring the fulfillment of the contract made with the Banking Commissioner to pay the dividends on the entire $108,500.00, in accordance with his agreement.

At this meeting there were sixty trustees participating and voting in the determination of the question, and the chairman of the Board was directed to proceed with the lawsuit seeking to enforce the original contract made by the Banking Commissioner (continued on page 4)

The examining trial of Charlie Stanford was held in Rockdale last week before Judge Leo Harris and was allowed bond in the sum of $7,500.00. On Monday a motion was made by his attorneys before District Judge W. G. Gillis to have his bond reduced from $7,500.00 to $5,000.00. He made the bond and was released.

BANDIT GANG STAGES ROBBERY IN CAMERON

Evidence was in the hands of Sheriff Blaylock Thursday to link a bandit gang with the robbery here on Friday night of the Schuhmacher wholesale company warehouse of more than $150 in merchandise.

The Sheriff said that the gang, believed to be three in number, had committed crimes in recent days over a wide area of this section. He said the car had been identified as belonging to Dr. Yates of San Antonio, having been stolen there some days ago. License plate numbers for 1933 were taken at Hearne one night last week after a night policeman there had engaged in a gun duel with the men as they attempted to stage a robbery. They are believed by Sheriff Blaylock to be the same robbers who entered a freight depot in Rockdale.

Merchandise taken from the Schuhmacher Company consisted largely of cigarettes, it is said.

Oh, Professor

Friday, January 13 at 8 o'clock the Yoe High Dramatic Class will present a comedy in three acts "Oh, Professor" by Katharine Kavanaugh, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Blaylock.

It is as frivolous as confetti at a carnival, as gay as sunlight on the lake, and all about a light-hearted crowd of characters criss-crossed in a tangle of absurd mix-ups that does not get straightened out until the final curtain goes down on two hours of riotous fun-making. "Depression take wings when O. Professor moves in."

The cast of twelve represents the best talent in Yoe High. Members of the cast are: Jack Masters, Madie Watson, Niley Smith, Carolyn Cheves, May Raymond Julian, Sula Mae Depew, Nancy Newton, John Watson, Julian Freeman, Ray Burke, Patsy McGregor and Bettye McCollum.

Playlets and special numbers will be presented between acts.

The proceeds of the play will be given to the football boys to help buy their sweaters.

We are glad to report Mrs. Joe Mohler is improving after a severe attack of illness.

Helped By Cardui

Here's the true story of how Cardui helped Mrs. H. E. Dunaway, of McComb, Miss., as written by herself:

"I was sick and rather discouraged. I was so weak and thin, I was not able to do my work as it should be done. This made me fret a good deal, and did not help my condition.

"I had pains across my back and lower part of my body. My nights were spent in rolling from one side of the bed to the other, hoping I would soon go to sleep. Then when morning would come, I would be just as tired as when I went to bed. A neighbor, seeing how badly I felt, told me to try Cardui. After I had taken one bottle, I was much better. I kept on taking Cardui, and I was stronger and slept much better at night."

"ON TO VICTORY"

Our attendance is much better since Christmas. Last week the following were absent: Lorraine Pope, Catherine Monroe, Woodrow Lange, Lavonia Brock, Barclay Jeter, Bill Storey, Jack Thompson and Ray Stapleton.

Santa was good to all of us—having left Billy Wilson a rubber doll, Rodney Pollard a cap pistol, Willie Radtke a remedy for love, Catherine Mode a doll buggy, Daphne Terry a remedy for freckles, Virginia Harper a pair of mittens, Victor Walzel anti-fat, and several other presents to other members of the class.

We are enjoying baseball now and a contest is being put on. Joe McLean's team won for the boys.

"Elnora Goes to High School" by Gene Stratton-Porter, was read by 7A and 7B last week. The introductory lesson and new words were studied in class. The following compositions deal with the story read by us:

ELNORA

Poor Elnora, why did her mother not realize how she was dressed; the old calico dress with a long skirt, the old low heel, high top shoes, and the hat that was so small?

Elnora had a beautiful white complexion, and reddish brown, curly hair. She was a tall, handsome and noble girl.

Elnora was a bright girl. She thought twice before she spoke once. She did not want to start a fuss the first day of school.

If I knew Elnora, I would probably choose her as one of my best friends, for she is very nice.

—Eugenia Alford.

THE ALGEBRA PROFESSOR

The Algebra Professor, Mr. Henley, was not a "snub" like the rest. He was very thoughtful and considerate to Elnora and cool toward the rude students.

Professor Henley was very kind and manly to Elnora. The Professor always saw Elnora's embarrassment and gave her courage.

I personally think Mr. Henley was a very nice and polite gentleman. I think Mr. Henley knew that some one else had done the discourteous trick of rewriting Miss Comstock's name as "Cornstock," and was proud of Elnora for being so womanly.

—Dorothy Mae Braden.

ELNORA

Elnora was a girl who lived back in the woods in the State of Indiana. She lived with her widowed mother, Mrs. Comstock.

Elnora was a girl who wanted to go to school. So one day her mother prepared her lunch and Elnora started to high school at a neighboring town by the name of Onabasha. She was to be in the eighth grade.

This morning on the way for the first day in high school she thought of how she was dressed. I think Elnora was dressed very differently from the girls in the city. She had on a very long and narrow gathered skirt and a blouse which was made of calico. Elnora's skirt was long enough to cover her high topped shoes which were made of hard and rough leather. Elnora's shoes seemed queer to the city girls, and to think of wearing winter shoes in the hottest part of September.

"Goodness, look at her hat," said the girls to each other. The hat was much too small for her, and besides it did not have any trimmings on it. The girls surely thought she picked it out of a waste can.

If Elnora had dressed nicer she would have been very attractive for her complexion was very fair. Her hair was a reddish brown color. She was about four and one half feet tall. One reason she was not a very pleasant girl was because she was not always very obedient. Elnora of course had a temper like everybody else has, but she knew how to control it.

—Florence Myer.

ELNORA

Elnora wore a long dress that swept the ground. It was a very old-fashioned one and did not look at all like the other girl's dresses. She wore heavy black shoes much too large for her. Her old black hat was much out of style.

Elnora, very pale and white, with her beautiful reddish-brown hair held down by a small black ribbon, was very different from us, but more determined.

Some of Elnora's characteristics were that she was very determined and would not give up. She would not be put down by what other people said. Elnora did not lose her temper easily; she was willing to do anything honorable to improve her condition.

—Veda S. Graham.

"The Sinking of the Titanic," by Harold Bride, was read by 7C last week. New words were learned, and the "aids to understanding" studied. Our study activity was to write something about the story. The following compositions deal with the story:

WHAT I THINK OF PHILLIPS.

Phillips was one of the bravest men I ever knew. In the time of danger when all others were scrambling for a life boat he stayed at his post of duty. What awful shouts and cries were heard! Still faithful to his work he stuck. The wireless was getting weaker all the time. Phillips knew that we were slowly sinking. Greatly do I admire that kind of a man. He would rather save the lives of others than his own. He worked so hard the last fifteen minutes sending for help. He was faithful to his duty. General Robert E. Lee said: "Duty is the sublimest word in the English language."

When he had put his life belt and his overcoat on, he still worked. The stoker even tried to take off his life belt and Phillips did not even stop working. He died of cold and suffering, but what a brave death! He was unselfish and sacrificed his life to save others.

—Winnelle Kidd.

THE COLLISION

On the night of the sinking of the Titanic, everyone was asleep. Everything was peaceful and quiet. Then came the collision! When the iceberg was hit there was no sign except a slight jolt. No one knew what had happened until the captain sent word to send the call for help. In a little while everything was confusion! The decks were full of scrambling and pushing people. Boats were being lowered and put off full of men and women. By this time there was a tilt forward.

Finally the last boat was gone. The boat was gradually going downward. Everything had been done that was possible. There was no ship in sight and no telling when one might come to their assistance. The captain then released his men. It was a beautiful sight as it went down! It was ablaze with light and the band was playing. It slowly went down under the water, out of sight. And so the Titanic sank.

—Zora Wilkerson.

AN INTERESTING INCIDENT

Of the many interesting and dreadful incidents, which happened aboard the Titanic during its last few hours, there is one which we seldom hear of. It is of the message sender, Phillips, who was a brave, honest and thoughtful man. But, alas, we always have with us those who are less perfect! Aboard the Titanic the less perfect man was a stoker or some man from below decks.

All the passengers and most of the sailors had left the boat, but Phillips was still at his post sending messages for help. Mr. Bride, his helper, had placed the life belt on the busy Phillips and was at the time getting his money for him. As he was getting his money, he saw a stoker creeping carefully up to Phillips who did not notice him or what he was doing. The stoker was slipping the life belt from Phillips' back! Suddenly Mr. Bride felt the passion not to let the man die a decent sailor's death. He did his duty and hoped he finished him. The last he saw of him was as he lay on the floor of the wireless room as he and Phillips left.

What dreadful things happened at the last moments aboard the Titanic! Are you not glad you were not there?

—Vivian Whites.

Ted Matula, 52's radio artist then gave an interesting talk on "How it feels to Broadcast." The Patrol meeting followed after which the patrol leaders gave favorable reports on the Anniversary Week Exhibit and the knotboard. Three short speeches were given, the titles of which were as follows: "The Outlook for 1932" by Paul; "The Spirit of Troop 52" by Ermis and "Journalism" by Richard. Everyone that could play a Frenchharp were called upon to render a selection in order to see how many there were. It was found that over half of the Troop could play. After a few games the meeting was closed.

We are glad to announce that Troop No. 52 will be among those to receive the President's award.

Thursday night, Jan. 5 the Troop entertained their sponsors, the local council of the Knights of Columbus at their hall with a short program consisting of speeches, musical numbers, scouting demonstrations and slight of hand tricks.

TROOP NO. 53.

J. W. Haygood, Scoutmaster

Our regular meeting was held Friday night. The program was in charge of the Black Bear Patrol. The meeting was opened with the Scout Oath. Members of the Black Bear Patrol gave a radio program, after which each patrol leader told what he had done during the week in his patrol. In the contest the Flying Eagle Patrol is ahead by two points with the two other patrols tying for second with only one each. Our attendance at this meeting was very good but we would like for all registered scouts to be present at every meeting. We will have a hike if the weather permits on Friday at 5:30 o'clock, starting from the Masonic hall.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this method of extending our sincere and heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends who came to our assistance during the recent death and burial of our son and brother, Andy Smith.

We will hold in grateful remembrance always all those who came to us with words of sympathy and kind deeds during our hours of great sorrow. We thank those who gave flowers and all who in any way assisted us.

Mrs. M. L. Smith and family.

THE TAX MENACE A GROWING CRISIS

By FRANCIS H. SISSON
President American Bankers
Association

NO danger, economic or social, more seriously menaces our life, happiness and prosperity than the rising tide of taxes which threaten to engulf us. This is not simply a problem of the depression. It has been developing for many years, growing more serious all the time. The depression merely brought it to a climax.

F. H. SISSON

Unless drastic steps are taken to reverse this trend the problem will not end with the depression. It will continue to weigh down and retard progress for an indefinite period.

In city, county, state and nation the orgy of spending has run on. It is estimated that in the United States the total cost of all government is nearly five times what it was before the World War. Many localities have been brought to the verge of bankruptcy by their expenditures, while many have saddled their citizens with a debt burden that will darken their lives and hamper their progress for years.

The total cost of Federal, state and local government in the United States is estimated at forty-six million dollars a day. Based on national income in 1930, this represents about one-fifth the total income of our people, or about $110 for every individual in the nation. Total taxes in 1931 are estimated to have taken more than 22 per cent of the national income. It is occasion for serious thought on the part of everyone when one day's income out of every four or five must be contributed to the maintenance of government machinery.

United States Government expenditures were reduced one hundred and forty million dollars during the first quarter of the current fiscal year. The recent action of bankers in calling a halt to unnecessary expenditures of New York City as prerequisite to loans will reduce the cost of government in the country's metropolis, which is second in its expenditures to only the Federal Government. No state in the Union, in fact, no other government on this hemisphere, spends half as much as this one city. These savings in Federal and municipal costs are only the beginning of a movement needed throughout the country, if we are to be led out of depression into prosperity.

Unless the people can be made to realize that money for governmental expenditure can come only from their own pockets as taxpayers, casting depressing effects on both individual effort and general business, there is an imminent threat that we may be forced to meet economic difficulties similar to those that have so seriously handicapped other countries.

The idea that money for these mounting extravagances can be raised by following the slogan "Soak the Rich" is utterly fallacious, for such a policy will simply exterminate "the rich" and eliminate sources of revenue. It is also important to realize that corporate business in this country is in no position to withstand the effects of indefinite advances in tax rates. Current earning reports reveal that fact beyond shadow of doubt. The tax base must be broadened, and it therefore seems likely that Congress will be called upon to reconsider the sales tax.

A Country Editor Looks at Banking

LOS ANGELES.—While the idea of the guarantee of bank deposits by some legally enforced plan seems to appeal to many people who give it casual thought, the fact is that it has not only failed in every instance in the eight states where the experiment was tried, but actually produced unsound banking and increased the number of failures. It was declared by the recent convention of the American Bankers Association held here.

"Guaranty of bank deposits carries an idea that naturally appeals to people in general on casual consideration," the declaration said. "However, in principle it is unsound and in practice it is unworkable. It has been tried in eight States and it has not only failed in every case, but it has resulted in increasing the number of bank failures. Taxing properly managed banks to make up losses of failed banks is not only unfair and unreasonable, but it weakens the whole banking structure. Again, guaranty of deposits places the incompetent and reckless banker on an equal footing with the able and conservative banker, which encourages bad banking at the expense of sound banking. We are therefore opposed to the passage of any law carrying a guaranty of bank deposits and believe that it is against the interest of the people of the United States to develop any such system."

Press Suit

sioner with the Commissioner's Court, and if necessary, to take the case to the Supreme Court of the State.

At this meeting Mr. E. A. Camp of Rockdale, as attorney for the Banking Commissioner and of the Commissioner's Court of Milam County, was invited and was present and discussed the matter from his viewpoint. He made explanation of the attitude of the Banking Commissioner and the Commissioner's Court in reference to the collection of this fund, and expressed the opinion that it would be more speedily collected if the lawsuit was not prosecuted by the school districts and the County Board.

The Chairman of the County Board of Education made an extensive explanation to the persons present in reference to the attitude of the County Board of Education and the interests and rights of the school children. After the explanation of the matter, a vote was taken, and the majority of the trustees voted to accept the advice and suggestions of the Chairman, and directed that the case be proceeded with against the Banking Commissioner for the purpose of enforcing the contract he had made with the Commissioner's Court to pay the dividends as agreed in the contract of February 29th, 1932.

It was shown that when the Cameron State Bank failed on December 17th, 1931, that such bank had on deposit from all the funds of the County $108,507.71 and that this amount, by agreement made with the banking commissioner, was credited on the entire indebtedness by the sale of $70,000.00 in securities held by the Commissioner's Court to secure its indebtedness of $108,507.71 and that after crediting said sum with that amount, there was left due the sum of $37,507.71. Of this amount due then to all the funds of the bank $31,863.47 was the loss to the schools and the County and the State funds had lost only $5,488.61.

On May 11th, the Banking Commissioner declared a dividend of 13 per cent, arising from funds realized from the failed bank, and all depositors of the bank had been paid this dividend except the school and county funds, and that of the dividends due, five-sixths of such was due to the school funds and one-sixth to the State and County funds.

It has been shown that when the May dividend of 13 per cent was declared, if the school funds have received their portion, there should have been paid to those funds the sum of $4,142.25, and this would have been credited on the debt, but as the same was not paid, the Banking Commissioner, having the money in his hands, and having failed to pay it, it was contended by Mr. Morrison that he ought to pay six per cent interest on the amount of the dividend from May 11th, 1932 until January 7th, 1933, and if this amount should have been paid, the amount would have been $4,232.77; that is, this would have been the amount due if the dividends had been paid as other creditors were paid, but if the dividends had been paid in accordance with the Banking Commissioner's contract, the school funds should have received at that time the sum of $10,188.30.

The school funds have been credited with the sale of $12,000.00 of hypothecated securities in the Cameron State Bank and the original amount due the school funds of $31,863.47 was credited with said sum, together with the accumulated interest on those bonds and amounted to $12,190.00, and crediting the original amount with this sum, left still due to the school funds $19,573.47. In case the dividends had been paid in accordance with the Banking Commissioner's original contract, the balance then left unpaid in the school funds would have been $9,585.17, and it was contended that, as these dividends had not been paid in accordance with the Banking Commissioner's contract, he should pay interest on the deferred payments at the rate of six per cent per annum for eight months and twenty-six days intervening between the time the dividend was declared and the date the conference was held on January 7th, and if these sums had been paid, there would then have been left only $9,129.65 due the school funds.

On December 15th, the Banking Commissioner paid another dividend of 10 per cent to the general creditors but made no payment to the school funds, and if this dividend of December 15th, had been paid in accordance with the Banking Commissioner's original contract, the school funds would have been paid by that last dividend the sum of $9,042.30, and that if this amount had been paid, there would have been left due the school funds the sum of only $61.73.

After a full discussion of all this matter for about two hours, a vote was taken and by a majority vote, the chairman of the County Board of Trustees was instructed to proceed with the lawsuit now pending which has been appealed to the Court of Civil Appeals by the Plaintiffs and to continue to insist and urge that the Banking Commissioner be required to pay the dividends as per his original contract.

The Banking Commissioner having paid all creditors of the failed bank, except the amount of the indebtedness owed on the school, state and county funds, and not having paid to those funds any sum whatsoever, although he had the money in his hands, the Chairman of the County Board was directed to proceed against the Banking Commissioner to collect the entire amount of indebtedness now being due to the school funds in the sum of $19,573.47, and he was, likewise, directed to prosecute said suit to the Supreme Court for the collection of this money if found necessary.

3,000,000 FAMILIES AIDED BY RED CROSS

Distress in All Areas Met by Giving Food, Clothing and Other Help.

More than 3,000,000 families throughout the nation were given relief of various types by the American Red Cross in the past winter, to aid them in their distress caused by unemployment, disaster or other misfortune.

A major relief task, due to unemployment and other unusual conditions in the bituminous mining counties in twenty states, was met by the Red Cross chapters alone, or participating with other agencies. In these 143 counties, the Red Cross aided 90,000 families through giving groceries, school lunches, clothing, flour and other necessities to combat privation.

Flour, milled from government wheat turned over to the Red Cross by Congress, was given to 15,000,000 persons in the period from March 8 to June 30, the close of the fiscal year. Flour will continue to be given through the winter of 1932-33, and Red Cross chapters also will give cotton clothing, made from government cotton turned over to the Red Cross for distribution.

"The Red Cross faces the busiest winter since the days of the World War," Chairman John Barton Payne said. "It is organized in virtually every one of the 3,072 counties in the United States, and will co-operate with all agencies to meet distress wherever found. The flour has proved of great benefit, and the cotton clothing will be given wide distribution."

While carrying on nation-wide these unemployment and other relief measures, the Red Cross also was engaged in its regular peacetime activities in public health nursing, service to ex-service men and their families, teaching home hygiene, life saving and first aid. The Junior Red Cross, composed of almost 7,000,000 school children, also rallied to the support of the society's relief efforts, and the children aided others of their age in practical ways, formed sewing and food canning classes, and were of great assistance in chapter relief work.

While the wheat and cotton were given by the U. S. Government, no money was provided to pay for the necessary work entailed. The Red Cross will meet this expense of almost $500,000 from its treasury. Citizens can aid by joining as members of the local Red Cross chapter during the roll call from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day.

SIXTY DISASTERS IN 1932 ADD TO RELIEF PROBLEMS

Red Cross Spends $2,760,000 to Help Victims of Catastrophes.

In a year of great misfortune caused by economic depression, in which the American Red Cross assumed heavy burdens of relief for the unemployed, the organization also responded to emergency needs in 60 disasters in the United States and its insular possessions.

During the twelve months ending June 30, 1932, the Red Cross gave aid to 75,000 families totalling 338,000 individuals, with expenditures of $2,760,786. These people were in distress because of drought, flood, forest fire, tornado, snowstorm, mine explosion or other similar great disaster.

Prolonged drought caused the Red Cross to go with help to 58,000 families in the northwest. Here in 144 counties in North and South Dakota, Montana, Nebraska, Washington and Iowa the Red Cross spent $1,980,000 from its own treasury to feed and protect people through the winter and spring.

Other grave disasters were floods in southeastern states, where the organization spent $192,000 from its treasury and $66,000 local contributions to help 13,000 persons.

More than 50,000 people were homeless from floods in tributaries of the Mississippi river and again the Red Cross faced a long relief task, aiding these people. The national organization gave $108,000 and local contributions were $10,000.

The Red Cross always maintains a state of readiness to meet these sudden emergencies, and funds and other essentials to this work are supplied, in part, by the annual roll call, held each year from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day. Every citizen can support this worthy activity through joining as a member in the local Red Cross chapter.

DIZZINESS

relieved by Black-Draught

"I decided to take Theodor's Black-Draught, as I had been having bilious spells," writes Mr. Charles E. Stevens, of Columbus, Ind. "When I get bilious, I feel sleepy and tired and do not feel like doing my work. It is hard to tell how I feel, but I do not feel good. I get awfully dizzy. I know then that I had better take something. After I found how good Black-Draught is, that is what I have used. I guess it rids me of the bile, for I feel better—don't feel like I am dropping off to sleep every time I sit down. That, to me, is a very bad feeling." Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a SYRUP, for CHILDREN.

Home Demonstration Agent Makes Bnnual Report Here of Work In Milam County

"What a man hears he may doubt, what he sees he may possibly doubt, but what he does himself he cannot doubt," might well be the quotation of any demonstrator or co-operator in Extension work over the County who have been doing a thing better than it has been before. Home demonstration women and girls have become teachers in that in doing a demonstration others have come to see, to hear and learn. According to Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham, "The Farmers and their wives their sons and daughters with their successful demonstrations are the heroes and heroines of the Extension Service."

Fifty one women and girls have carried on special demonstrations in the Farm Food Supply, the garden, interior improvement, and yard improvement with 1932 co-operators, under the supervision of the County Home Demonstration Agent. Some one has defined a demonstrator as "a person who benefits himself and others by developing a farm or home enterprise to a better paying or living basis," and in describing a demonstration the following interpretation is good: "A demonstration is a progressive, practical example of better farming or home making by a farmer or a member of his family, which leads to greater profits, comfort, culture, influence and power." By the latter all demonstrations conducted by demonstrators are measured.

Home Demonstration have worked with a goal of reaching 85 per cent of farm families in the county. To this end each club has a meat preservation committee, a canning committee and each member has had her responsibility to reach at least three families.

Records show that most members have averaged helping six families while many have ranged around 20, one member helping 40. The agent devoted one month entirely to new organizations and to unorganized communities, committees have given 82 demonstrations. Undoubtedly 71 per cent of the families have been contacted.

Have You Shelled Any Corn?

In the expansion program Bethlehem club assisted 45 families in canning 819 containers in one month's time.

Eight tours have been conducted with 540 people in attendance to see special demonstrations in Farm Food Supply, garden, yard, orchard and bed room. The largest group of women and girls to ever attend Short Course from the County went in 1932. All women's clubs sponsored ways for delegates. Twenty five women and girls attended one week.

The Milam county meat show with 356 exhibits proved to be one of the most interesting and profitable events for a number of years, and in the words of the Extension employees: "It ranked with the famed West Texas shows in quality and quantity." Some 450 people attended the show. One hundred dollars worth of prizes were given away.

One hundred thirty-four club girls have conducted demonstrations in gardening in cooperation with their mothers. Sixty hot beds and cold frames were made by these girls. Total value of their gardens $9218.06. Total cost including fertilizer, seed, plants, cans, jars, material for insect control $603.95.

Club girls have also accepted the responsibility of passing their club work on to others. Girls have sometimes gone into homes, clubs and other communities giving demonstrations in adjusting sealers, reflagging cans, canning, planning improve-

This year Home Demonstration Clubs to the 4-H pantry the Farm Fruit Plot, each member having as her goal to set six trees or twelve vines and special demonstrators were asked to set out a new orchard of 14 trees, 24 berry vines, 6 grapes. Results show that every demonstrator set out the required amount. Total amount set and living by clubs 972 trees and 1214 vines at a cost of $131.70.

In the 4-H pantry work 14 storage pits were built, 1447 feet of shelves added for food storage, 11 new pantries built, 25,393 pounds vegetables cured, 252 pounds fruit dried, 74,529 quarts of food such as vegetables, meats, fruits, preserves, pickles canned. Total value of pantries of numbers reporting $18,849.56.

Club members have used many and varied ways of getting foods, canning equipment and other articles necessary to the improvement of home. Higera has been traded for sweet potatoes, honey for peanuts, chili for trees, native shrubs for nursery stocks, canned goods for house furnishings.

Mrs. Frank Winkler of Ad Hall says: "My husband and I have certainly enjoyed being demonstrators. My pantry is valued at $171.43. It contains 550 containers of 52 varieties of food. I do not believe I will ever enjoy anything more than my new built in pantry full of foods, my year round garden and orchard. I can my own wheat. We find it cheaper and I like it better." Mrs. Steve Mertz of San Gabriel averages making two pounds of cheese per week or about $18.00 per year.

Mrs. Henry Kuzel of Corinth admitted that in getting a new pantry full of 409 quarts of food that it called for other improvements. "I painted the kitchen ceiling, papered the walls, made new curtains and a new flue for the stove." All improvements including new orchard, garden, canning equipment, pantry, etc., cost $37.65. Butter and eggs paid for these and many other items.

Improving the interior of the home has centered around the bedroom, however, in many instances improvements have traveled throughout the house, building sleeping porches, making living rooms, adding another window, closing up a door, adding closets, and making pantries and on and on until the totals show 60 rooms papered or painted, 77 floors painted, varnished, or stained, 52 rooms with woodwork improved, 65 rooms with furnishings added, 1106 pieces bed linen added, 25 clothes closets made, 179 pieces of furniture refinished, 97 rooms with new curtains, 36 rugs made, 32 mats, 137 pieces of furniture made, 8 houses screened. Total value of rugs, linen and mattresses made $1502.20, or five times the amount done the previous year.

Nurserymen have cooperated in the yard improvement plans and orchard work of the county. Yard work for the first year has included the removal of scattered flower beds and shrubs from over the yard, straightening and repairing fences, gates, steps, porches, placing roses, flower beds to back and side of yard and the making of a door-step planting of at least 15 shrubs. Thirty-nine demonstrations have been given in yard improvement. Results at the end of the year 85 yard plans drawn and used, 46 lawns made, 5141 shrubs planted and living for foundation and screening, 2110 native shrubs used, 300 trees planted and living, 25 rose gardens made, 5 public grounds planted, landscape plans made for 11 school yards and public places, 33 fences improved, 27 walks made, 7 pit type toilets made, 30 gates, 6 houses underpinned, 8 sets of steps made, 99 cutting beds made, 13 pieces equipment such as lawn mowers, hose, etc. added. Total cost yard improvement $96.55.

225 people from the home county and six other counties have visited the yard of Miss Ethel McKinney of Jones Prairie, yard demonstrator for that community. Her improvements have included a foundation planting, making a lawn, moving fences, making a walk and starting screening. At the end of three years beautiful yards, comfortable and attractive bed rooms should be as common in Milam county as 4-H pantries are at the end of three years.

Home demonstration members also played rural recreation under the leadership of Mrs. Kay Moore of Bryant Station the past year and Mrs. Cecil Plate of Tracy the previous year has completed two successful years.

Milam county men and women, boys and girls like to play "Come let's be joyful, Come gather rose buds while you may." More than 3000 people have attended community gatherings where old time folk games, plays and contests have been the nature of the recreation.

Mrs. Moore gives the following report from her community: "16 parties, picnics and entertainments, and one three-act play with an average attendance of 75 people. The importance of play life is very evident and I consider recreation of vital importance to both old and young."

In conclusion, Home Demonstration Clubs in the county are grateful for the splendid cooperation of the organizations, the individuals, the County Judge and the Commissioner's Court for the splendid cooperation with which they give the Extension work.

SOCIETY

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Women's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church held an interesting meeting with Mrs. J. P. Love at the Rectory Monday afternoon, Mrs. R. P. Jeter leading the study on the Church.

D. A. R. MEETING

Mrs. Pearl Clement, with Mrs. R. H. McIntosh as joint hostess, entertained the D. A. R. Chapter Wednesday of last week. Roll call was answered by giving "What Thrift Means to Me." This brought out personal experiences and discussion on the subject so applicable in today's financial depression.

The regular routine of business followed. During this time, the Registrar reported a new member, Miss Dora Emily Moore. The chapter voted to give donation of money to the United Charities, also voted as an organization to sew for the Red Cross.

Miss Ruth Kemp was elected delegate to the Continental Congress of D. A. R. meeting, which will be held in Washington, D. C. next May. She gave an interesting account of the Continental Congress meeting held in Washington last year.

A historical contest conducted by Mrs. R. H. McIntosh was much enjoyed.

HISTORY CLUB.

Japan was the subject of the History Club study Tuesday afternoon when it met with Mrs. A. C. Strickland, with Miss Katherine Flinn as leader.

Owing to illness among the members of the Club there were only 9 members present. Next meeting will be held with Mrs. R. P. Jeter.

The hostess was assisted in the hospitality by her mother and sister Mesdames Wm. Henderson and C. W. Bradbury respectively.

A delightful salad course with hot tea was served.

THE AFTER-AFFECT OR HANG OVERS FROM THE "FLU."

By DR. J. W. TORBETT

The rainwashed skies of heavenly blue

Are smiling down on me and you I'm so happy, I don't know what to do

Because I'm well and have missed the "flu,"

And I hope the same with you is true.

If it is not true, remember what one Irishman said to another when flu first became prevalent.

"Pat, what is this new disease they call 'flu'?"

"Ach, Begorra, it is something you have six months after you get over it."

There is no other disease we can abhor more perhaps than an attack of flu and those who have had it must be very careful not to get out of bed too soon because a relapse is very easy, especially if one gets chilled. One should not walk and exercise when they get short of breath as it will frequently weaken the heart so that a permanent heart disease may become established. The best treatment is to stay in bed and keep warm, then have your urine examined after you have gotten over the attack, and also your nose and throat, especially if you have fullness, headache and dizziness or discharge in the nose and aching in the sinuses or over the cheeks. Many cases of sinus trouble are left following the flu which may finally go on and cause rheumatism, Bright's Disease or other serious chronic troubles that would be very difficult to cure if they are allowed to become chronic.

The gargle mentioned heretofore of Epsom Salts and common baking soda, one teaspoonful of each to a pint of water, using two or three tablespoonfuls of this as a gargle following with a teaspoonful of salt water, the salt in a pint of cold water after the hot water has been used. A little Birmingham Douche which can be secured at any drug store for twenty-five cents, is a splendid to wash out and cleanse the nose in case it seems to be closed up and breathing imperfect. If this does not relieve it soon the patient should consult a competent specialist or physician for this trouble.

A diet containing plenty of fruit juices and vegetables, bread, milk, and butter with potatoes and something green every day should be kept up after these troubles in order to establish resistance and the proper strength. The diet should not be too much eggs and meat until one gets to exercising again. Honey and syrups are better than sugar because they both help to build up the heart muscles and help give strength to the patient.
